

John Cutitta Named Executive Chef at DELECTABLES by holly

Award-winning experience in hotels and restaurants drive hire.

John Cutitta, former Executive Chef at City Tavern in Charlotte, has been named Executive Chef at DELECTABLES by holly Catering.

Cutitta, a graduate of the Culinary Institute of America, brings over 25 years of experience to DELECTABLES by holly. His background includes work at New York's Four Diamond Hotel Carlyle, the Five Star Lowes Grandpoint Hotel and OME Caterers. He was also Executive Chef of Westchester's prestigious Winged Foot Golf Club. Chef Cutitta was featured in New Jersey Bride Magazine and on News 12 NJTV. Most recently, he filmed two half-hour segments of "Cooking in the Carolinas," and was featured carving ice on "The Carolina Traveler." Chef John has won silver and gold medals at the Salon of Culinary Art from the Societe' Culinaire Philanthropique, competed for the A.C.F.'s Big Apple Chapter and has won the Taste of Charlotte two years in a row.

"We are so excited to have Chef John as part of our team," says Holly McLelland, owner of DELECTABLES by holly. Holly adds, "his talent, expertise and passion for food will help take DELECTABLES to the next level in catering."

"John brings great strength to the kitchen. His technique, execution and overall cooking skills along with his management and execution of major events will greatly enhance DELECTABLES catering power," says Holly.
